

Natural disasters might occur anywhere! You can learn them easily in the landslide museum!

DVD theater (1F)

You can watch guidance of the museum, landslides, debris flows and slope failures.

Panel display (1F~2F)

These displays explain natural disasters easily by illustrations.

ITAKURA YUSETUKAN (1F)

What is the meaning of "8m18cm"?
Lives in snow country are introduced by folk materials, diorama and panels.

Legend dolls display (out door)

Display human size dolls describing legends that have been told in this region. You can take pictures with them.

Relaxing room (2F)

Display up-to-date information about natural disasters and local activities.

Experience corner (2F)

You can try computer quiz then you know how well you understand natural disasters.

- Computer quiz
- Building model game
- Landslide model
- Debris flow model
- Snow avalanche model

There are many kinds of natural disasters in the world!

Experiment corner (2F)

You can learn natural phenomena through experiments.

- Liquefaction
- Fold model
- Sedimentation
- 3D topographical map etc.

Legend room (2F)

Introduce legends that have been told in this region by handcraft dolls and animations

Due to the abnormal weathers these days, people are more interested in disaster education. You can learn natural disasters easily in the landslide museum. Please come and see it.

Access

The landslide museum

○ By car
12km from Joshinetsu EXP way [PA Arai smart I.C]
(30minutes)

Bannai river Sabo park

○ By car
5.5km from Joshinetsu EXP way [PA Arai smart I.C]
(15minutes)

Access map

A Buddhist priest voluntary became human pillar to prevent landslides 800 years ago. His bones are conserved in the shrine.

Human pillar shrine

Yamadera-yakushi (healing Buddha)

There are three Buddha in the hut.

LEARN ABOUT DISASTER PREVENTIONS AND LOCAL HISTORY

THE LANDSLIDE MUSEUM

Including「ITAKURA YUSETSU KAN」
(SNOW MUSEUM)

In the park there are masonry Sabo dams registered as cultural heritage. Kids enjoy catching tadpoles and other small aquatics in summer.

Bannai river sabo park

Open: 9:30am.~4:30pm
Admission: Free
Closed: Every Tuesday
December 29th ~ January 3rd
Address: 401-1 Sarukuyouji, Itakura-ku,
Joetsu-city Niigata-ken Japan
Tel: 0255(78)2687

STAMP